THE TUTOR TEAM

The tutoring team is made up of highly skilled and qualified lecturers and experts in their field that maintain their connections with industry, including coaching and management of high performance sports teams and professional sports clubs.

ASSESSMENT

All UCS courses provide opportunities to test a student's understanding of the subject informally, before the completion of the formal assessments that count towards the final grade.

Each module normally contains at least one piece of practice or 'formative' assessment, for which students receive feedback from their lecturer. Practice assessments are developmental and any grades received do not count towards the final module mark.

There is a formal or 'summative' assessment at the end of each module.

Assessment methods include written examinations, essays, reports, portfolios, performances, presentations, and a dissertation.

Students receive feedback on all formative and summative assessments undertaken through coursework and are encouraged to discuss them with their tutors in order to develop further.

TEACHING METHODS

All UCS programmes are delivered through a blended learning approach. This consists of 80% live, tutor-lead, online delivery and 20% face to face learning. This allows for streamlined group interaction, as well as assessment of practical skills required by modules, such as coaching, training, performance and fitness testing. These sessions take place at designated UCS campuses.

Attendance at these sessions is compulsory, UCS will arrange your travel and accommodation, as required. Options available are discussed during the interview process and during induction week.

REGULATION

UCS, as part of the Oxford Virtual Education Group, is a Pearson registered Centre.

All UCS provision is awarded by The University of the Highlands and Islands, and as such is regulated by the Office for Students.

FEES AND FUNDING

COSTS

For Academic Year 24-25, the following fees apply for UK and EU students:

- BSc Sports & Fitness £8250

Undergraduate students generally have two types of expenses - tuition fees, and living costs.

Students studying in Scotland:

In most cases, Scottish domiciled fee status students have their fees paid for them by the Students Awards Agency for Scotland (SAAS) and may be eligible for living cost support.

TUITION FEES LOANS

Student Awards Agency Scotland (SASS) pay your fees directly to your college or University. These are non-repayable if you study in Scotland, but you must submit an application every year.

LIVING COST LOANS

You can apply for a bursary and loan to help with living costs. How much you get depends on your household income and if you are a young or independent student.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT LOANS

If you don't qualify for student finance, you may be able to apply for a career development bank loan to help you progress your career.

It is a government initiative that may allow you to borrow up to £10,000. The Government pays the interest whilst you are studying.

More information can be found here.

SELF FUNDED STUDENTS

If you are not eligible for a tuition fee loan, chances are we will be able to accept payment by installment using FlexEd. This is ideal for students who may be doing a second degree, a self-funded course, or may be sponsored by their employer.

Please contact an advisor for more information.

If you are from Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland and want to study at a UCS Campus in England, you need to contact your own government to discuss what support is available for tuition and living costs.

Channel Islands and Isle of Man students are not eligible for funding from UK government.
